

CV:

Winston Matlala

Winston Marcus Kgaudi Matlala graduated from the University of The North with a B.Proc (UNIN) degree in 1995. He is an admitted Attorney to the High Court of South Africa.

Winston was employed by the Financial Services Board in the Pensions Fund Department as a Senior Legal Analyst from 2001 to 2005. He was involved in perusal, evaluation, registration, amendment and consolidation of rules of retirement funds to ensure compliance with the Pensions Funds Act, transfer of businesses between funds, liquidation and cancellations, advising pension fund industry stakeholders on various pension fund issues, attending to inspections of pension's funds, evaluating requests for exemptions and extensions.

In February 2005 Winston was appointed as a Senior Associate at Routledge Modise Moss Morris Attorneys, in the Commercial Department. Since then he was involved in advising employee benefits schemes and service providers on legal and regulatory aspects of retirement funds.

In 2006 March was appointed as Head: Legal and Compliance at Advantage Asset Managers.

In 2006 November, Winston established his own private practice, WMK Matlala Attorneys. This practice provides expertise and experience in the area of Pension Fund Law.

Winston is an independent trustee on a number of pension funds and trust administration companies.